WHY IS SOCIAL STUDIES IMPORTANT?

1. Social studies provide opportunities for students to develop the attributes, skills, and knowledge that will enable them to become engaged, active, informed, and responsible citizens.
2. Recognition and respect for individual and collective identity are essential in a pluralistic and democratic society.
3. Social studies help students develop their sense of self and community, encouraging them to affirm their place as citizens in an inclusive, democratic society.
4. Students bring their own perspectives, cultures, and experiences to the social studies classroom. They construct meaning in the context of their lived experience through active inquiry and engagement with their school and community.

Course Overview

Historical Worldviews

Grade Eight Social Studies expands on the concept of intercultural contact and continues to develop historical thinking skills through an examination of past societies in different parts of the world.

-Alberta Education

This program of studies is broken down into three major historical worldviews
